

Signor Andreoni

Bio

A native of Sardinia, Italy, Alberto Andreoni has been playing guitar since age 13, and after attending Berklee College of Music in Boston, MA, he settled into performing in jazz combos at local cafes and lounges. While living in New York, Alberto discovered techno, and now with the with the aid of a MIDI-guitar, he has found a fresh playground to play his freestyle jams, creating live improvised dance music. Currently Andreoni resides in Berlin where he enjoys collaborating with friends, exploring the interaction of traditional and modern music techniques. He contributed greatly to Jay Haze's album 'Love & Beyond', heard in some form on nearly every track.

Discog

8 Years Old / That's Some Shit (10")	MiniSketch	2008
Three in Series of Fire (12")	TuningSpork Blues Experiment	2007
Housemusic/State of Mind (12")	Lo-Fi Stereo	2007
Blues Experiment 02 (12")	TuningSpork Blues Experiment	2006
Triumph of the Glory (12")	TuningSpork Family Affair	2006
Blues Experiment 01 (12")	TuningSpork Blues Experiment	2006

Myspace: <http://www.myspace.com/andreoni>

Booking: bookings@tuningspork.com